Principal's Report: Given by Mrs. Wendy McAshlan

- The safety squad has started with the 5th graders helping in the car rider line in the mornings and after school.
- Every morning they are reciting a Windsong Pledge
- The school has started doing their morning announcements together, so the kids stay in the gym or the cafeteria and listen to announcements, say the pledge of allegiance and the Windsong pledge, then go to class.

Announcements:

- Featured Sponsors: Jenkins & Associates, AnCap Financial, and Revive MedSpa

Old Business:

- Vote on Revised Bylaws: Emmanuel Balderas motioned; Alisha Schonlaw seconded

Committee Reports:

- Color Run - Needing another sponsor
- Silent Auction (Alisha Schonlaw): Needing more items for baskets, asking around to local business, help with items on the spreadsheet
- Spirit Day (Rachel Dobson): HOCO week, High School Girls Basketball team will be there. Blue Smoke, Windsong Spirit Squad and we will make little mums to hand out to the students
- Spirit Store (Ashley Knupfer): Need to get the word out more about pre-orders. Volunteer if you are able to. We will have some Halloween-style trinkets and bracelets.
- Windsong Cares (Amy Nesrsta): Right now, we don't have a wish list. We always need spirit shirts. Food drive will be taking place in November, put on by the Student Council.
- Calendar Raffle (Amy Nesrsta): We did great and succeeded our goal. We profited $33,671.82 and we will have contacted the winners of the raffle prizes. The students' prizes will be coming next week. Expenses totaled $6,165.13

Treasurer Report:

Minutes Recorded by: Rachel Dobson, Secretary

- Ashley Knupfer, Treasurer presented the monthly financial report and discussed the year-to-date numbers. We are currently exceeding our expected income.
